(57) Abstract :

[06] The objective of the study as mentioned in the research methodology is to find out the community's perception regarding community based tourism initiatives. Primary survey reaches o the conclusion that most of the researchers previously discussed the concept of community based tourism or community based eco-tourism within the peripheries of rural tourism initiatives but nobody have talked about community based tourism initiatives particularly in the state of Himachal Pradesh. The present work is an outcome of the results obtained from the first hand data collected from three community based tourism locations in the state.
